PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLICATION

MNN. August 4th, 2023. Major developments on search for unmarked graves at Royal Victoria Hospital RVH.

The Kahnistensera (Mohawk Mothers) are deeply concerned about the recent actions of McGill University and the SociÃ©tÃ© QuÃ©bÃ©coise des Infrastructuresâ?? (SQI) in the archaeological search for unmarked burials at the New Vic site. Despite publicly stating their support for the court ordered process and commitment to reconciliation, McGill and SQI have unilaterally terminated the panelâ??s ordered mandate. They also did not follow through on several recommendations in the Settlement Agreement signed in April 2023 and homologated in the Quebec Superior Court.

McGill and SQI recently rejected recommendations from the Panel to include a forensics expert to oversee the â??chain of custodyâ?? of artefacts, an essential part of a credible investigation. The Settlement Agreement was part of an injunction won by the Mohawk Mothers in October 2022. The New Vic construction project was halted in order to allow for an â??Indigenous-ledâ?• investigation of unmarked graves. This process is constantly being interfered with by the SQI and McGill to try to control the whole process, reducing the role of Indigenous people to

One panel member resigned during these troubling developments. Mohawk Mother Kahentinetha declared the turn of events â??deplorableâ?•. Mohawk Mother Kwetiio stated that â??it is very unfortunate that the SQI, as a Quebec public institution, appears to prefer waste public funds and time to keep Indigenous elders from revealing the truth about the fate of their children. We wanted an open dialogue to resolve the disagreements over implementing the Settlement Agreement. It is unacceptable that Quebec and McGill forcefully violate a court ordered â??indigenous leadâ?? search for the unmarked graves of potential victims of their institutions.â?•

False Narratives: On August 3rd, 2023, McGill University and the SQI published newsletters disclosing part of the results of a Ground Penetrating Radar (GPR) survey performed by Geoscan on July 24, 2023, which we received the day before on August 2nd, 2023. See attached newsletters. The SQI and McGill did not consult the Kahnistensera (Mohawk Mothers) before making it public. These newsletters contain misleading information that must be corrected.

The SQIâ??s newsletter suggests that â??to date, no burials have been foundâ?•, while in reality excavations are underway to find the human remains detected by search dogs in front of the Hersey Pavilion, and where important evidence was found in the soil, including a young womanâ??s dress and an old pair of childrenâ??s leather shoes. The SQIâ??s newsletter failed to mention the verbal attack last week of Mohawk cultural monitors and elders on the site, who were evicted and verbally aggressed by unidentified security guards under the direction of the SQI. Someoneâ??s phone was illegally grabbed and the video content was erased. In the GPR report, the SQI and McGillâ??s newsletters mislead the public into believing that only nine (9) anomalies were found in the small â??priority zoneâ?•, where construction work was started. A far greater number of â??unknownâ?• targets were detected by the GPR team, who suggest that, â??It is possible that some of the unknown features may be unmarked graves, particularly in the case of older burials without coffins and also possibly child-size graves.â?•

The burials now being searched follow the testimonies of survivors of medical experiments at the former hospital. They could be children who may have been clandestinely buried without coffins. Mother do you think theyâ??ll drop the bomb
Mother do you think theyâ??ll like the song
Mother do you think theyâ??ll try to break my balls
Ooooh aah, Mother should I build a wall
Mother should I run for president
Mother should I trust the government
Mother will they put me in the firing line
Ooooh aah, is it just a waste of time
Hush now baby donâ??t you cry
Mamaâ??s gonna make all of your
Nightmares come true
Mamaâ??s gonna put all of her fears into you
Mamaâ??s gonna keep you right here
Under her wing
She wonâ??t let you fly but she might let you sing
Mama will keep baby cosy and warm
Ooooh Babe Ooooh Babe Ooooh Babe
Of course Mamaâ??s gonna help build the wall
Mother do think sheâ??s good enough for me
Mother do think sheâ??s dangerous to me
Mother will she tear your little boy apart
Oooh aah, mother will she break my heart
Hush now baby, baby donâ??t you cry
Mamaâ??s gonna check out all your girl friends for you
Mama wonâ??t let anyone dirty get through Mamaâ??s gonna wait up till you come in Mama will always find out where Youâ??ve been
Mammaâ??s gonna keep baby healthy and clean

Ooooh Babe Ooooh Babe Ooooh Babe
Youâ??ll always be a baby to me
Mother, did it need to be so high
