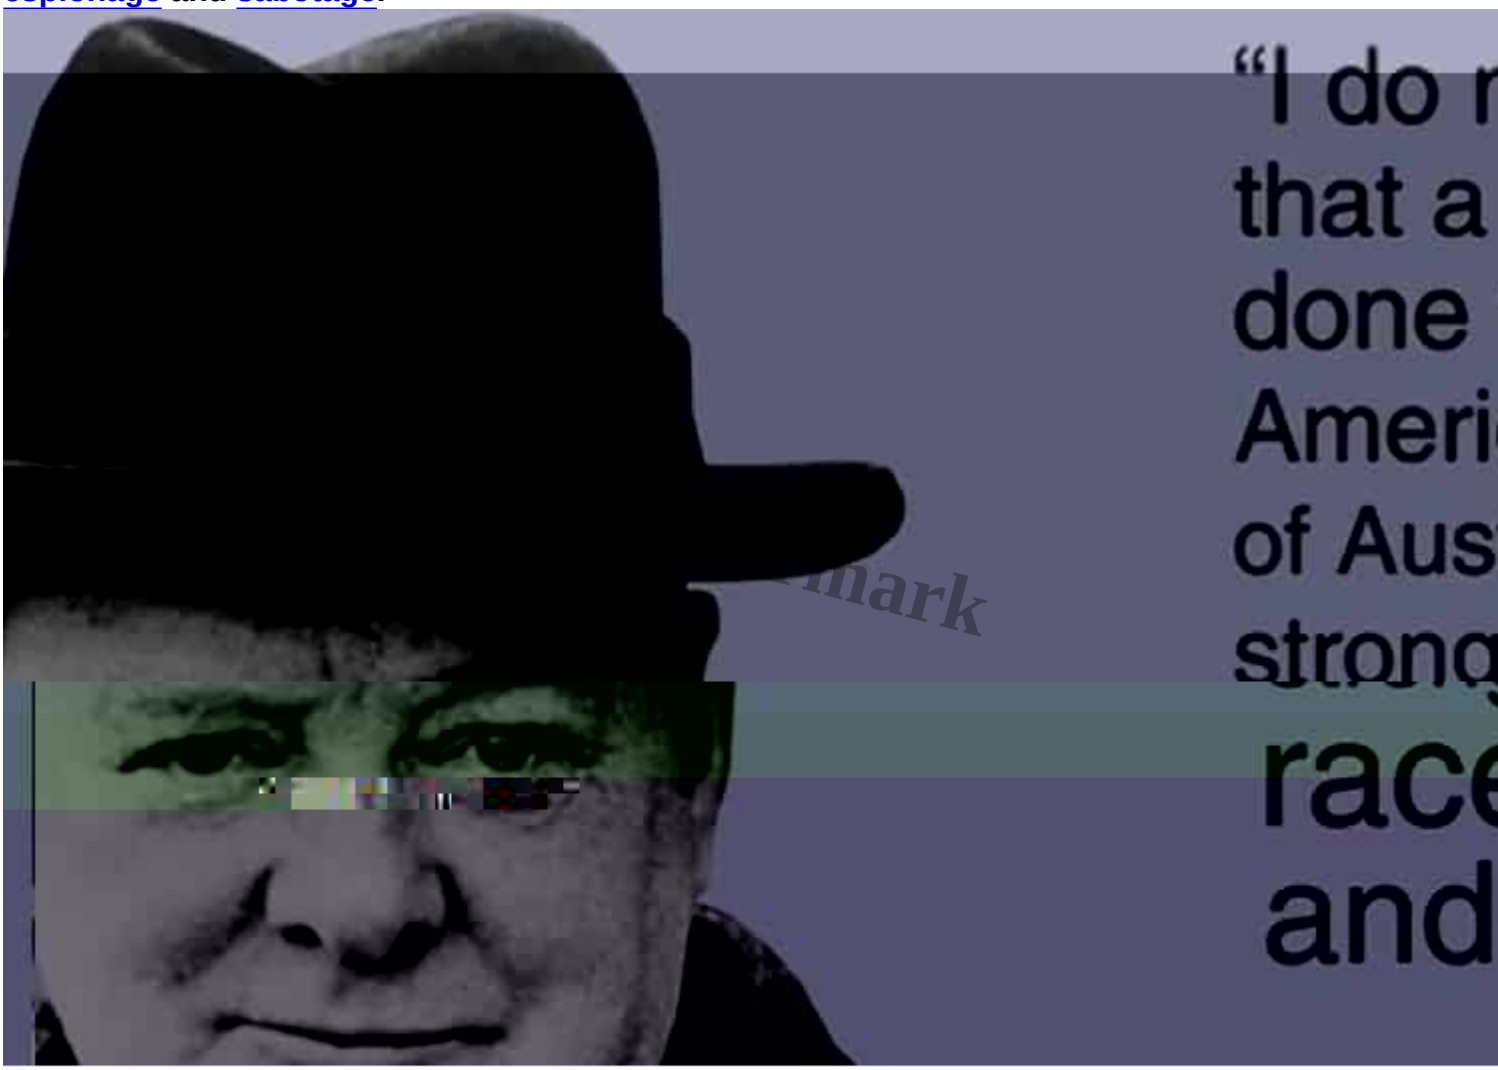
MNN. 11 Mar. 2020. Concerning the saboteurs in our communities, Thohahente posted the following:

TEHONWATISOKWARITON RATIHENSTATSIS

â??Fifth column, clandestine group or faction of subversive agents who attempt to undermine a nationâ??s solidarity by any means at their disposal. The term is conventionally credited to Emilio Mola Vidal, a Nationalist general during the Spanish Civil War (1936â??39). As four of his army columns moved on Madrid, the general referred to his militant supporters within the capital as his â??fifth column,â?• intent on undermining the loyalist government from within. sakotenninons.

â??A cardinal technique of the fifth column is the infiltration of sympathizers into the entire fabric of the nation under attack and, particularly, into positions of policy decision and national defense. From such key posts, fifth-column activists exploit the fears of a people by spreading rumours and misinformation, as well as by employing the more standard techniques of espionage and sabotage.



â??I can see the work of what used to be called 5th column subversives energized by the Canadian state and their agents gradually disassembling the many acts of #WetsuwetenSolidarity in Kanienâ??keha:ka communities. SAKWATONINONS.

Despite the lip service Liberals pay to Native tribes, they consistently pick oil interests over the rights of Indigenous people. Can that change?

The tyendinaga/kentekeh camp goes on.

Frank Zappa has a song about the 5th column in all our territories. â??If you analyze what weâ??re playing here, if you use your ear and listen, you can learn something about music. You see â??Louie Louieâ?• is the same as the other song with one extra note. You see? They are very closely related and they mean just about the same thing. Plastic People, you gotta go. Plastic People, you gotta go. .. A fine little girl as she waits for me sheâ??s as plastic as she can be. She paints her face with plastic goo and wrecks her hair with some shampoo. Plastic People, you gotta go.â?•
