MNN. Dec. 4, 2016. There will be no pipeline anywhere! When Washington DC saw the overwhelming worldwide support for the Lakota water defenders, the army did not attack.

Recent DAPL strategy meeting.

In September President Obama told them to stop constructing the pipeline on Lakota land. The National Guard and the DAPL ignored it. They violated a presidential order.

One way to get out of Dodge!

The Army Corps of Engineers denied the permit to Dakota Access Pipeline DAPL, which says it will drill anyway and pay the fine. The army, National Guard, North and South Dakota Police, FBI and all US policing agencies have to go after DAPL to obey the order.

Trump: “Those INDIANS are going to bankrupt me more!”

The war is just starting. The Whitehouse and the Army Corps of Engineers can't stop the pipeline. Only the people can. The National Guard and police protecting DAPL is a military coup for turning against the federal government by not stopping the pipeline.

The police can be fired and the soldiers can be court marshalled for not following orders.

The USA and army know they are breaking a treaty between nations when they broke the treaty with the Lakota. The US proposed this treaty to stop a war. All onkwe'hon:weh treaties are peace treaties. None are land and natural resource cession treaties. No proof exists that these corporations own any land or natural resources.

The strategists tried to figure out how to go to Standing Rock and finish the Indian problem. Then they could put the pipeline over their dead bodies as they've done in the past. All of great turtle island is sacred as our bones are scattered throughout.

FIREPOWER

The more, the merrier.

“Hold your fire! It’s over!”

DAPL must now terminate all illegal operations and evacuate all construction sites. All equipment and construction supplies must be removed, and their mess cleaned up. Interfering with the Lakota are criminal and civil offences for which they have to be arrested, charged, tried and punished.

Gen. Gorman to DAPL: “Pretend you’re an INDIAN!”

The army has no authority to tell the Lakota to move from their homeland. DAPL cannot sneak in and finish the pipeline in the dark of night. DAPL is being protected by their company security. The National Guard and Police have to stop them.

The head-on confrontation between the original people and their supporters was against the most warlike imperialistic anti-humanistic force in the history of the world. Their power came through theft of our oil and resources. With this stolen wealth and genocide, they suppressed people worldwide.

Bye-bye Lee Hanse and your co-body snatchers.

The kaia'nere:kowa, great peace, directs all the people to unite. They saw the wrongs and found a way to resist by remembering the original instructions.

We aren't there yet, but here's a song about the Battle of Little Big Horn:
