

TWO ROW JUSTICE V. UNITED STATES/WORLD COURT

Description

Please post & distribute.

MNN. Nov. 27, 2018. For over 20 years we, sovereign onkwehonweh, exhausted the court system all the way through to the Supreme Court of the United States. [Jones v. Parmley 17-928]. Over 100 of us were viciously attacked on May 18, 1997, by the New York State "Indian Detail" on Onondaga land. Our human rights were violated at all levels of the court system [Federal Trial Court, Federal Appeals Court and Supreme Court]. The only corporate court left is the World Court, the International Court of Justice, at The Hague.

We've been blocked from serving it on the World Court in violation of the UN Charter and the Declaration on the rights of Indigenous People. We need your help to file this case that is posted below @ <https://tworowjusticevunitedstatesworldcourt.com/>

May 18, 1997: hundreds of militarized NY state troopers in riot gear -operating as a specially formed unit, "I-81 INDIAN Detail"- brutally assaulted hundreds of Haudenosaunee people gathered to discuss issues harming their communities. During opening ceremony prayer baton wielding police -operating under the instructions to "do no one and take anyone you can"- began beating and clubbing babies, children, women, men, elders, and Clan Mothers. The brutality included throwing babies out of carriages causing one to require a double legged cast for their injuries. Children assaulted and arrested included an 11 year old and 14 year old girl who was manhandled and slammed to the ground. This continues to impact the health and well being of all who were present; many live with painful lasting injuries and psychological trauma.
