MNN. 10 July 2015. A meeting of those of us clients dropped by the lawyers, the lawyers for the other ongwe'hon:weh, the NYS Attorney General's office, met at G. Nugent's office [not the INDIAN hater Ted] in Syracuse. It was about the NYS Attack in Onondaga in 1997. [See video]

A two-headed creature: NYS and bar lawyers.

We went to interrogate his client, one of the New York State Troopers, who was charged and wants to come clean about the “Indian Detail”. 14 of the 100 targets from all Six Nations of the Iroquois Confederacy Rotinoshonni were dropped by the pro se lawyers because we refused to take the cash settlement offered by NYS to drop the case against of hundreds of Troopers and NYS. As Judge George Lowe previously reported, if this case goes to court, they [the ongwe'hon:weh] will win. He advised NYS to offer us money so they can continue to get away with genocide. On May 18, 1997 we were having a ceremony and a feast on private ground near Interstate 81. Also, we were going to talk about various topics, in particular the agreement signed between the Onondaga Council of Chiefs Ind. and NYS to charge illegal taxes on our products. The highway was not blocked. 75% attending were women and children.

The appearingly remorseful sargeant was nervous. The two lawyers still involved in the case, were trying to dominate everything that happened in that room. Someone from the NYS Attorney General's Office listened and took extensive notes.

Ongwe'hon:weh: "All we want is justice".

We finally got a chance to ask a few questions. "When were you called to show up for the Indian Detail?" He answered, "at 11:00 am the day before May 18th". He admitted there was extensive preparation for this attack. Then we asked, "What is an Indian Detail? Is there an "Italian Detail"? "A Chinese Detail"? or "an English Detail"? He answered, "No. there is only an Indian Detail". We asked what preparations are made for an Indian Detail? "We have to assemble all our equipment – rifle, ammunition, bullet proof vest, tear gas, pepper spray, shield, baton", and so on, all meant for deadly force. The Troopers were ordered not to wear their name badges, which, he said, is illegal.

In one of the NYSP videos, the commander instructed the lineup of Troopers just before the attack, "Make sure you take out the right one [or ones]!" The sargeant said he did not know about this.

The Attorney General said to give them everything they want.

The man from the Attorney General's Office left the room to make a phone call. He returned and asked the sargeant a few questions. Then he turned to us and asked us to submit in writing within a week a list of our demands to stop this case from going to trial. We said we needed at least a month. So a deadline was set for August 10, 2015.

Stay tuned for the next deadly details about the “Indian Detail”. Pink Floyd nailed the “us and them” dichotomy that went on in that room: “Us and them. And after all, we’re only ordinary men. Me, and you. God only knows what we chose to do”.
